

Terms of Use & Privacy Policy

Christian Ministries of Delaware County (CMDC) values your support, and has created this policy detailing our information gathering and dissemination practices, and to demonstrate our organization's commitment to protecting your privacy. This policy may be updated periodically.

Information Collection and Use

If you make an online donation, you may provide contact information, and credit card information. All credit card information is handled in an encrypted system, and is not retained beyond the time of credit card processing.

Your contact information is used to send you requested materials or a donation receipt (if you have made a donation), and to keep you informed about our program.

Our policy is to protect the privacy of our supporters; we do not share, rent, or sell email addresses or any personal information.
